Vandebilt Catholic High
Houma, Louisiana

A complementary color in the spectrum of knowledge, our teachers at Vandebilt instill in us a spirit of enthusiasm and enlightenment.

Fulfilling their call as representatives of the All-Knowing Teacher, Vandy's faculty enlightens our mind, strengthens our will to do good and avoid evil.

Delving into the darkness of our uncultivated minds they illuminate our potential to learn and aim our ideas toward the highest goals.

Like a prism in the world of light, our faculty radiates knowledge, thus creating stepping-stones along our road to success and maturity.

With sincere gratitude and deepest appreciation, we, the students of Vandebilt, dedicate the "Campus Light" to you, the faculty!

Dear Seniors,

It is with mixed emotions of joy and sorrow that I write this letter. I have feelings of joy because you have reached another milestone on the road of life and I know this is something to which you have been looking forward; I have feelings of sorrow because this year is coming to an end.

You have been a wonderful senior class - willing to cooperate so easy to get along with. I felt that we could talk and if you wished to say something, you knew the way and would not hesitate to approach the office. For the most part you have given the undergraduates fine examples of school spirit and Christian togetherness.

On behalf of the faculty and myself, may I wish you every happiness and success in the future. Do not hesitate to return to Vandebilt. Thanks for helping to make me realize that all the bad remarks said of youth are not necessarily true.

God bless you,

Brother Brice, S.C.

The Sophomores of '69 in their first year of senior high have aimed for success. They used participation in school activities as a tool to guide them towards their goal. A first place in the Homecoming Parade combined with their spirited cries at pep rallies and football games has proved that this class is really first rate. Spirit linked with cooperation are the vital ingredients of the Sophomores' "Recipe for Success."
